Trustee News

The Trustees met on November 21st and discussed many of the continuing repairs to the parsonage. They have made great strides on all of the required repairs. We are very thankful for the diligent and faithful work they have provided!

Elders News

Elders met on November 14th via zoom. Worship service was discussed, and plans were made for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services. Love feast will be serviced in a grab and go style similar to last year. The Elders also discussed congregational needs. The Elders are looking for some new members, if you feel the call please reach!

Job Opening

Administrative Assistant: Beginning February 1st we will have an opening for our administrative assistant position. This is a part time position which is currently about 8-10hrs or less a week. Once a new pastor is secured the hours could possibly go up to as many as 16hrs a week. This position includes creating and publishing the monthly newsletter, keeping up with church records, weekly bulletins, fundraisers and much more. If you are interested please email lindsey.firstmoravian@yahoo.com to be forwarded to the Board for consideration.
